Fees, Cancellation Policy and Changing Your Booking

Our cancellation policy is:

Cancel at least 20 days in advance of the date booked for a full refund.
Cancel, change the date or change location less than 20 days in advance of the original date, we cannot offer a refund as other business opportunities may have been compromised.

Covid Policy:

If you or the chef needs to cancel due to Covid and the food has not yet been purchased, you will get a full refund minus the deposit. If the food has been purchased, you will get a refund minus the cost of the food and the deposit. You will then be invited to book another dinner for the future.

Changes to the number of guests at the event:

Please inform us if the number of guests at your event changes as soon as possible so that we have enough time to work out portion sizes etc. and calculate additional costs. If the number of guests are reduced on the week of the dinner, you will still need to pay the full price originally quoted. If numbers go up, we may be able to adjust that and amend the final bill to be paid.
